

SWEET BASIL

Gourmetware and Cooking School

Spring 2017
April ~ May ~ June

Spring in the Valley and the surrounding desert is - especially with the kind of rain we've had this year - a green delight whether it is poppies at Lake Pleasant or the herbs in our home garden. The star of our garden is, of course, Sweet Basil, followed by - in the words of Simon & Garfunkel - sage, rosemary and thyme. (Alas, the parsley isn't around for very long despite our micro-fiber sunshade.) We use our herbs in the Cooking School and in the Market Cafe. See below for some tools available in the Kitchen Tools section of our Store that you'll find useful whether your source for fresh herbs is a farmer's market, your windowsill or garden.

PROGRESSIVE HERB KEEPER

Whether you grow your own or purchase fresh herbs at the grocers or farmer's market, they are not inexpensive. Protect your investment with Progressive's Herb Keeper!

(Also great for storing asparagus!)

- > Features an easily refillable base for water to keep herbs hydrated
- > Keeps refrigerator odors out
- > 9" H - 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ " W
- > Holds up to 3 bunches of herbs

HERB & GREENS STRIPPERS

<<< The looseleaf has 8 different sized holes to strip leaves like kale & romaine greens.

The zipstrip has 4 different sized holes to strip herbs with a measuring cup >>>

CHEF'N ZIPSTRIP™

ENDURANCE® HERB SNIPS

Five 3" stainless steel blades make short - and accurate - work of cutting fresh herbs.

Tomato Tart

AND SPEAKING OF FRESH BASIL!

The Sweet Basil Market Cafe's new menu has some great additions like the Tomato Tart with garden tomatoes, swiss cheese, parmesan, basil, thyme & parsley baked in a flaky butter crust. (And we mean FLAKY!) We have indoor seating or enjoy spring weather on our patio!

Monday ~ Saturday 11 AM - 3:00 PM
